

As Cedars of Lebanon

Ps. 92:4-5,12-15; Rev. 3:12

11 11 11 11

Our God is a rock, and in Him there is found unrighteousness nary a speck or a strand -
How great are Your works! Your inventions profound!
So sing we for joy at the work of Your Hand.

As cedars of Lebanon, Lord, make us strong,
fit us to be pillars upholding Your Name.
We, faithful in Spirit and joyous in song
with zeal Your uprightness will thunderous proclaim.

Plant us in the courts of Your house evermore,
there always to flourish, fixed faithful and true,
our fruit bearing well where the waters restore -
with age never fading, all strength to renew.

We shall overcome, and all wickedness stave:
O Jesus, give grace to stand firm at the doors;
the Name of our God on Your servants engrave,
the name of the heavenly city, and Yours. Amen.